

Rotary Youth Camp CAMP COPENHAGEN 2026

August 16 - 27, 2026

Location:
Northern part of Greater Copenhagen, Denmark

Camp Copenhagen 2025

Participants

20 participants (women and men) aged 18-25

Language

English

Theme

Environment • Democracy • Architecture

Program Highlights

- Visit to the Danish Parliament
- Visits to local government institutions
- Discussions on democracy and international affairs
- Visits to international companies
- Architectural museums and cultural excursions in Copenhagen

Accommodation

Scout cottage in Holte, Copenhagen.
Simple shared accommodation with common dormitory.
Participants share daily tasks such as cooking, shopping, and cleaning.

Camp Fee

EUR 500. Payment details will be provided after acceptance.

Includes: Accommodation • All meals • Local transport • Entrance fees • Wi-Fi.

Participants pay their own travel to and from Copenhagen (CPH).

Recommended personal allowance: DKK 1500-2000 (€200-250).

Travel

Nearest airport: Copenhagen Airport (CPH).

Pickup organized by Rotary at Holte train station.

Participants must take the train from the airport to Holte (60 min by public transport). Detailed travel instructions will be provided after acceptance.

Arrival

August 16 between 08:00 - 20:00

Departure

August 27 at 10:00

Application Deadline

April 22, 2026

Submit EEMA application form to:
cm-st@rotary.dk or via YoLEM / YEAR system

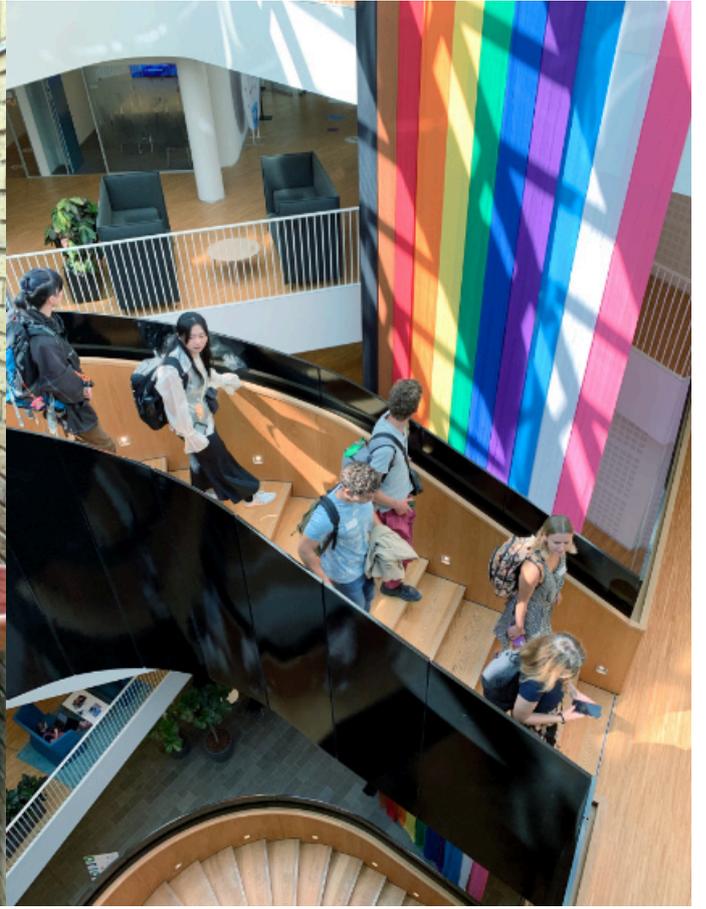

What to Bring

- Sleeping bag
- Light jacket
- Sweater
- Comfortable walking shoes
- Sandals/flip-flops
- Swimsuit
- Towel(s)
- Personal items.

Average summer temperature: 18-21°C.

Weather may include rain and cool evenings.

Participants will give a short presentation about their country and themselves during the first days of the camp.

Camp Copenhagen 2025

Hellerud scout cottage, Søterrassen 17, 2840 Holte, Denmark